	Change Description:
	Atmel will release it's own wafer fab in Colorado Springs for above product. The expected PPAP availability date for the Colorado version is indicated in this PCN/EOL below.
	New part numbers: ATA6286 C -PNPW and ATA6286 C -PNQW (Colorado fab) In support of Telefunken Semiconductor GmbH (TSG) wafer start requests that significantly exceed current run rates, Atmel is consolidating residual wafer demand for the TSG version of the above product. In order to ensure that Atmel does not purchase wafers from TSG in excess of certain ct version that uses the TSG UHF transmitter chip ATA5757 as a component of a dual die part. The microcontroller die is already produced in Colorado Springs and will not be changed.
	As Atmel wafer start rates at TSG currently exceed demand, Atmel has shortened the last time by period to quickly assess and build the correct mix of products and thus mitigate risk and ensure a smooth transition to the replacement part built with wafers from the Atmel owned Colorado Springs fab.
	Atmel kindly requests that last time buy orders for the TSG version of the product be placed by
